Hellenic Endeavor – 13 Days, 11 Nights – Athens, Sifnos, Milos & Paros

Day 1 – Athens

Pack your bags, you are off to Greece!

Day 2 – Athens

Welcome to Athens! Upon arrival at Eleftherios Venizelos International Airport, you will be greeted by your Hellenic Holidays transfer representative, who will drive you to your hotel. Enjoy the remainder of your day exploring Athens. You might stroll the old neighborhoods of Plaka, which mingle old & new Athens or explore the vibrant neighborhoods of Monastiraki and Kolonaki.

Day 3 – Athens (B)

After breakfast, your day will begin with your private half day walking tour. Along with your English-speaking licensed guide, you will visit the Acropolis and the awesome temples of the Parthenon, the Erechtheion and the Athena Nike. Your walk will continue to the Areopagus, or Hill of Mars. Finally, you pass the Odeon of Herodes Atticus, where you can still enjoy concerts and theatrical performances in the summer months. The tour will conclude with a visit to the Acropolis Museum exhibiting the glory of Ancient Athens.

Day 4 – Athens / Sifnos (B)

After breakfast, your Hellenic Holidays transfer representative, will pick you up from your hotel and drive you to the port for your ferry ride to Sifnos. Sifnos, one of the smaller islands in the Cyclades, is renowned for its whitewashed architecture and its sandy beaches spreading as far as the eye can see. Enjoy the remainder of the day soaking in the Greek sun at one of the island's spectacular beaches or by your hotel's pool. Take a stroll through the whitewashed cobblestone paths of Kamares. Enjoy some of the small fishing villages and tavernas offering home-cooked meals and local delicacies that are present throughout the island. Consider dinner at one of our recommended restaurants, enjoy the Cycladic ambiance and a great meal.

Day 5 – Sifnos (B)

You have a free day to experience Sifnos today. Consider visiting some of the islands amazing beaches, such as Platys Yialos and Vathi. Some of the beaches are organized with sunbeds and umbrellas, but there are no water sports. The ambiance of the island is to swim and dine in seaside tavernas on the beaches in Sifnos. It's what we call the shorts and flip flop feel of the island.

Day 6 – Sifnos (B)

There is some exploration that you can do on your last day in Sifnos. Consider exploring, the rustic Sifnos by walking the area's endless country trails and ancient villages atop its beautiful yellow and white, coastal hillside. If you enjoy walking, there are many hiking trails that cross Sifnos island and lead to monasteries, small chapels, old towers, and secluded beaches. The most important sightseeing in Sifnos is the Monastery of Chrissopighi, protector of the island. A very nice chapel is also the Church of Seven Martyrs, at the entrance of Kastro village.

Day 7 – Sifnos / Milos

After breakfast, your Hellenic Holidays transfer representative, will pick you up from your hotel and drive you to the port of Sifnos for your short ferry to Milos. Upon arrival, you will be greeted and driven to your hotel. Milos is known as the discovery place of the famous Venus de Milo statue, which is now displayed at the Louvre. Milos has dozens of beaches and picturesque villages that create its dramatic landscapes and charm.

Day 8 – Milos (B)

Milos has beaches and landscapes for all tastes. Milos possess a relaxing atmosphere that allows you to explore scenic villages like Klima & Plaka while savoring the local color of the island. Pair this experience with visits to great beaches like Sarakiniko for a wonderful day. There are dozens of beaches to visit, all different colors and all different combinations of sand, stone and shell, hence the nickname for Milos as the "Island of Colors". In the evening, visit the port of Adamantas. Adamantas has a lively waterfront scene with quaint shops and wonderful tavernas.

Day 9 – Milos (B)

Today is your last day in Milos. A must experience while in Milos, is to take a sailing trip to Kleftiko, a region on the southern side of the island with azure waters and amazing volcanic rock formations. While in Milos, you might consider visiting Plaka, another charming village that will lead you to the village of Trypiti with its famous windmills. Plaka is the place to visit a truly cinematic sunset but try to get there early as many people try to find the perfect spot for the sunset. Enjoy a wonderful dinner from one of our restaurant recommendations in town.

Day 10 – Milos / Paros (B)

Goodbye Milos, hello Paros! After breakfast, your Hellenic Holidays transfer representative, will pick you up from your hotel and drive you to the port for your short ferry ride to Paros. After your arrival at the port of Parikia, you will be welcomed and driven to your hotel. Paros is most famous in antiquity for its fine marble. Spend the afternoon enjoying the crystal blue waters of some of the island's finest beaches.

Hellenic Endeavor – 13 Days, 11 Nights – Athens, Sifnos, Milos & Paros

Day 11 – Paros (B)

Enjoy a day of swimming, sunbathing and enjoying a range of water sports at some of Paros' most spectacular beaches. Consider visiting the beach of Kolymbithres, or if windsurfing is your thing, visit the southeastern side of Paros and enjoy Golden Beach and New Golden Beach. In the evening consider visiting the colorful village of Naoussa and enjoy a wonderful seaside taverna dinner from one of our recommended restaurants as you enjoy the sea views and Paros' vibe.

Day 12 – Paros (B)

Paros isn't just beaches and water sports. Consider exploring the main attractions of the island such as the picturesque village of Lefkes and the magnificent Ekatontapylani Church, the church of one hundred doors is one of the earliest contributions to Christian architecture. If you are considering a day trip, grab a local ferry and visiting the neighboring island of Antiparos, a quiet islands known for its crystal beaches and wonderful seaside tavernas. Many of Hollywood's A List own homes in Antiparos so you never know who you might bump into it.

Day 13 – Paros / Athens / Home

Your Hellenic Holidays transfer representative will drive you to the airport for your short flight to Athens connecting to your flight home.
